QUESTION PRESENTED

Does a State Court violate Article IV, § 1, U.S. Constitution, 28 U.S.C. 1738 and K.R.S. 422.040, when the State Court Judges refuse to give full faith and credit to the records and judicial proceedings of a Federal or State Court of the United States or the records and judicial proceedings of its own Courts?

OCTOBER TERM 1988

EDDIE THOMPSON, JR.
PETITIONER

vs.

HONORABLE RAYMOND E. LAPE, JR.
KENTON CIRCUIT JUDGE
— RESPONDENT

PETITION FOR A WRIT OF CERTIORARI TO THE SUPREME COURT OF KENTUCKY

Petitioner, Eddie Thompson, Jr., (hereinafter Petitioner) respectfully prays that a Writ of Certiorari issue to review the Judgment of the Kentucky Supreme Court entered in an unpublished Decision on March 16, 1988. (App. P. 17a)

OPINION BELOW

The Order of the Kentucky Court of Appeals was entered on October 6, 1988. (App. P. 15a)

Notice of Appeal was filed on November 4, 1988.

JURISDICTION

The federal question was raised in the trial court, (Kentucky Court of Appeals).

Petitioner sought a Writ of Mandamus in the Kentucky Court of Appeals, directed to the Honorable Raymond E. Lape, Jr., Kenton Circuit Judge, to show cause, if there be any, why he refused: (1) to give full faith and credit to a Federal Judgment, (Ex. A, App. P. 6a), docketed by Petitioner in the Kenton Circuit Court, and (2) to give full faith and credit to decrees entered by (himself) Kenton Circuit Court Judge Lape on or about August 3, 1979. (App. P. 10a)

Judgment was entered by the Kentucky Supreme Court on March 16, 1989. (App. P. 17a), and the Petition for a Writ of Certiorari is filed within ninety (90) days of that date.

Jurisdiction of this Court is invoked pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1257(3).

The following decisions of this Court sustain Jurisdiction.

Durfee v. Duke, 375 U.S. 106, 11 L ed 2d 186, 84 S Ct 242

Haines v. Kerner, 404 U.S. 519, 92 S Ct 504

Union National Bank v. Lamb, 337 U.S. 38, 98 L ed 278

STATEMENT OF FACTS

On or about August 19, 1988, Petitioner, in a verified complaint, (App. P. 1a) sought a Petition for a Writ of Mandamus in the Kentucky Court of Appeals, to be directed to the Honorable Raymond E. Lape, Jr., Kenton Circuit Judge, to show cause, if there be any, why he: (1) refused to give full faith and credit to a Federal Judgment, (Ex. A) (App. P. 6a) docketed by Petitioner in Kenton Circuit Court. Case A, styled Eddie Thompson, Jr. v. Covington Housing Development Corp., No. 87-CI-773 and (2) refused to give full faith and credit to a decree he (Judge Lape) had entered in Kenton Circuit Court on August 3, 1979, Case B, styled Commonwealth of Kentucky, for the use and benefit of the City of Covington, Kentucky v. Patricia Thompson, No. 17936 (App. P. 11a, 13a) and Case C, styled, Commonwealth of Kentucky, for the use and benefit of the City of Covington, Kentucky v. Eddie Thompson, No. 18227 A & B, (App. P. 15a) by entering appropriate Orders.

In Case A, Thompson v. Covington Housing Development Corp., No. 87-CI-773, Petitioner had filed a supplemental pleading in Kenton Circuit Court, on May 7, 1987, seeking to have the Kenton Circuit Court Clerk issue a Writ of Execution on a Federal Judgment. (Ex A, App. P. 6a)

Covington Housing Development Corp. is an agent of the City of Covington.

On May 15, 1987, Mr. McMurtry, an Assistant City Solicitor, for the City of Covington, filed a Motion to Dismiss the supplemental pleading filed by Petitioner on a Judgment against Covington Housing Development Corp.

On May 21, 1987, Petitioner responded to Mr. McMurtry's Motion to Dismiss and filed a Motion to Compel the Kenton Circuit Court Clerk to issue a Writ of Execution on the Federal Judgment. No response was filed to the motion to compel the clerk to issue the Writ of Execution.

After a hearing on June 1, 1987, Judge Lape told Mr.

McMurtry to prepare an Order denying relief. Mr. McMurtry prepared an Order, Ex. B, (App. P. 7a). The Order read in part, "It is ORDERED and ADJUDGED that all pending motions of the parties are Dismissed. Judge Lape crossed out Dismissed and penned in OVERRULED. (App. P. 7a).

On November 30, 1987, Petitioner amended his supplemental pleadings pursuant to K.R.S. 426.381 and propounded interrogatories to the City of Covington, Joseph Condit and Ronald Turner. No answer was filed by these Defendants. (K.R.S. 426.382), and on December 18, 1987, Mr. McMurtry filed a Motion to Dismiss and for Judgment on the Pleadings. (No pleadings had been filed by any Defendant)

On March 10, 1988, Judge Lape held another hearing, where it was undisputed that the Judgment against the Covington Housing Development Corp. (Ex. A, App. P. 6a) was valid, the City of Covington was liable and that city officials has wrongfully used their offices to prevent Petitioner from collecting the Judgment.

On April 13, 1988, Judge Lape dismissed with prejudice the supplemental pleadings. (denied full faith and credit to the Federal Judgment — App. P. 6a)

Petitioner filed a timely motion for a rehearing. At a hearing on May 2, 1988, Petitioner requested Judge Lape to state his legal reasons for not giving full faith and credit to the Federal Judgment. (App. P. 6a) Judge Lape refused to enter a final order in violation of K.R.S. 454.350. (See Petition for Writ of Mandamus, App. P. 1a)

Case B, Commonwealth v. Thompson, No. 17936 and Case C, Commonwealth v. Thompson, No. 18227 A & B, involved alleged false criminal charges against Petitioner and his wife by city officials to aid Peoples Liberty Bank and Richard Nelson in illegal foreclosure proceedings in 1977 and 1978. (App. P. 11a, 13a, 15a)

Petitioner had filed 3 lawsuits in Federal Court (Thompson

v. Nelson, 78-57, Thompson v. Slukich, 78-70, and Thompson v. Peoples Liberty Bank, et al., 79-40) and in preparation for a pre-trial conference on September 10, 1980, Petitioner had visited the Kenton Circuit Court Clerk's Office to obtain portions of the records in Case B, 17936 and Case C, 18227 A & B. The Kenton Circuit Court Clerk's Office referred Petitioner to Judge Lape.*

In Case B, 17936, Judge Lape gave Petitioner a copy of an Order entered in that case, (App P. 11a, 13a) and a check for One Hundred ($100) Dollars, which was the return of the bond money deposited.

In Case C, 18227 A & B, (App. P. 15a) Judge Lape told Petitioner that the record in that case had been misplaced or lost. (See Motion for Leave to File Reply to Response to Petition for Writ of Mandamus, App. P. 8a) As of today, no final Orders have been filed in these cases.

In an unverified response to the Petition for a Writ of Mandamus, with reference to case 87-CI-773, styled Thompson v. Covington Housing Development Corp., (Ex. A & B, App. P. 6a, 7a) Judge Lape refers to the case as Thompson v. City of Covington and admits he dismissed for failure to state a cause of action and, on August 24, 1988, (he) placed in the record the written Order overruling the (Petitioner's) Motion for Rehearing. (App. P. 19a)

With references to Case B, 17936 and Case C, 18227 A & B, Judge Lape claims, inter alia, that (1) . . . this matter was never presented to me or brought to my attention since my appointment as Circuit Judge on May 18, 1979, until I received the Petition for Writ of Mandamus filed on August 19,

* (Prior to being appointed Kenton Circuit Judge on May 18, 1979, Judge Lape was an Assistant County Attorney and had acted as Attorney for the Commonwealth in another case where Petitioner had alleged that charges were brought in bad faith and were mere false and malicious prosecution to aid and abet Peoples Liberty Bank in the forcibly taking of real property.)

1988, by Petitioner; (2) Petitioner has misstated and alleged under oath these allegations which are blatant falsehoods; and (3) prayed for an Order of the Honorable Court to issue a rule against Petitioner, Eddie Thompson, Jr., to show cause why he should not be held in contempt of Court for making false affidavits.

In reply to Judge Lape's response (App. P. 8a) Petitioner informed the Court by affidavit that Judge Lape failed to serve upon Petitioner copies of the exhibit attached to his response to the petition and filed a copy of Order signed by Judge Lape in Case B, 17936, certified by the Kenton Circuit Court Clerk, (App. P. 11a, 13a)

Judge Lape made no effort to deny he signed the August 3, 1979 Order, or deny he told Petitioner the Record in 18227 A & B were lost or misplaced. (App. P. 11a, 15a)

The trial court (Kentucky Court of Appeals) denied the Petition for Writ of Mandamus without making a finding of fact as required by Ky Cr 52 (App. P. 16a)

The Kentucky Supreme Court affirmed, in an unpublished decision. (App. P. 17a)

REASONS FOR GRANTING THE WRIT

(1) Does a state court violate Article IV, § 1, U.S. Constitution, 28 U.S.C. 1738 and K.R.S. 422.040 when the state court judges refuse to give full faith and credit to the records and judicial proceedings of a federal or state court of the United States or the records and judicial proceedings of its own courts?

In Case A, Thompson v. Covington Housing Development Corporation, No. 87-CI-773, Petitioner sought to enforce a Federal Judgment. (App. P. 7a)

> Valid Judgments of Federal Courts, just as valid Judgments of State Courts, must be given full faith and credit. 28 U.S.C. § 1738, Article IV, § 1, U.S. Constitution; Transamerica Trade Co. v. McCollum Aviation, 424 N.E. 2d 740.

> An authenticated copy of a Judgment attached to a petition to enforce that Judgment creates a presumption of that Judgment's validity and its entitlement to full faith and credit and is sufficient, in itself, to establish a prima facie case for enforcement. The fact that the Judgment was taken by default does not defeat the presumption of its validity. 28 U.S.C. § 1738, Article IV, § 1, U.S. Constitution; First National Bank of Libby, Montana v. Rector, 710 S.W. 2d 100 (CA Texas 1986).

Article IV, § 1 U.S. Constitution provides,

> Full faith and credit shall be given in each state to the public acts, records and judicial proceedings of every other state. And the Congress may by general laws prescribe the manner in which such acts, records and proceedings shall be proved, and the effect thereof.

28 U.S.C. § 1738 provides,

> Such acts, records, and judicial proceedings or copies thereof, so authenticated, shall have the same full faith and credit in every court within the United States and its territory or possession as they have by law or usage in the courts of such states, territory or possession from which they are taken.

In Response to the Petition for Writ of Mandamus, with reference to Case A, No. 87-CI-773, Judge Lape erroneously referred to the case as Thompson v. City of Covington instead of Thompson v. Covington Housing Development Corporation. (Ex. A & B, App. P. 6a, 7a)

Judge Lape said, "He (Respondent) entered an Order dated April 13, 1988, dismissing (Petitioner's) complaint (supplemental pleadings) for failure to state a cause of action, said Order being a final appealable Order with no just cause for delay." What happened to the Order he entered on June 1, 1987? (Ex. B, App. P. 7a)

> Court may not consider collateral attacks on obligation underlying judgment of court . . . . Judgment replaces and extinguishes that obligation. Peters Production v. Desnick Broadcasting, 429 N.W. 2d 654 (Mich. App. 1988)

The Judgment is evidence of an established demand which, standing alone, is conclusive between the parties to it.

Judge Lape continues, "Petitioner filed a pleading styled Motion for Rehearing on April 19, 1988, Defendant City of Covington, filed a Response to Motion for Rehearing on April 21, 1988; and on April 23, 1988, a pleading styled, Reply to Mr. McMurtry's Response to Motion for Rehearing was filed. The Respondent Court reviewed the file on August 24, 1988, and determined that no written Order had been docketed, although an ORAL ORDER overruling the Motion for Rehearing was made on May 2, 1988 at the regular Motion Docket of this Court. On August 24, 1988, this Respondent placed in the record the written Order overruling the (Petitioner's) motion." (App. P. 19a)

Arguendo, Judge Lape did enter an ORAL ORDER on May 2, 1988, what was the effective date of that Order. Obviously, it is the day he put it in writing.

Now that Judge Lape entered an Order on August 24, 1988, (App. P. 19a), what mitigating effect did the Order have on the judgment? (App. P. 7a)

> Order of Court which did not destroy or otherwise militate against existence of liens claimed by creditors . . . was not a final or appealable Order and creditors had right to proceed further in action in order to enforce their lien claims. Wenk v. Ruby, 431 S.W. 2d 302 (Ky CA 1968).
> The fact that the Writ of Execution was sought on a Judgment rendered in a court of the United States, sitting within the state of (Kentucky) instead of one of the state courts is immaterial. Hancock National Bank v. Farnum, 176 U.S. 640.
> Jurisdiction to render the Judgment having been established or being presumed, the full faith and credit clause precludes any inquiry into the merits of the cause of action, the logic or consistency of the decision, or the validity of the legal principle upon which the Judgment is based. Milliken v. Meyer, 311 U.S. 457.
> When a state court refuses (full faith and) credit to the judgment . . . because of its opinion of the nature of the cause of action, or the Judgment in which it is merged, an asserted federal right is denied and the sufficiency of the grounds of denial are for the Supreme Court of the United States to decide. Titus v. Wallick, 306 U.S. 282.
> The faith and credit given is not to be niggardly but generous, full. (L)ocal policy must at times be required to give way, such "is part of the price of our federal system" this constitutional purpose promotes unification, not centralization. It leaves each state with power over its own courts, but binds litigants, wherever they may be in the nation, by prior orders of other courts with jurisdiction. One trial is enough. The principals of res judicata apply to questions of jurisdiction as well as to other issues as well to jurisdiction of the subject matter as of the parties." The federal purpose of the clause make this court, for both state and federal courts, the final arbiter when the question is raised as to what is a permissible limitation on the full faith and credit clause. Johnson v. Muelberger, 340 U.S. 581.

Where the only question before the court was whether the Judgment of the (federal) court was entitled to full faith and credit, the only place to which the lower court could correctly inquire was to the face of the Judgment and the record of the federal court; the question was one of law, not one of fact, which the lower court possessed the power and authority to resolve. Abbott v. Maranga, 567 S.W. 2d 312 (CA KY 1978).

The constitutional command of full faith and credit as implemented by Congress requires that, "Judicial Proceeding . . . shall have the same full faith and credit in every court within the United States . . . as they have by law or usage in court of state . . . from which they are taken," Durfee v. Duke, 375 U.S. 106 (1963).

The Honorable Raymond E. Lape, Jr., Circuit Court Judge, filed a Response to the Petition for a Writ of Mandamus, Pro Se. Petitioner filed a motion for leave to file a reply to the Response to the Petition for Writ of Mandamus. (App. P. 8a) Petitioner informed the trial court (Kentucky Court of Appeals), inter alia, that Judge Lape's Response was not in good faith.

After ordering the reply filed the court denied the Petition for Writ of Mandamus without making any finding of fact. (App. P. 16a)

Civil Rule 52(a) in part provides,

> In all actions tried upon the facts without a jury or with an advisory jury, the court shall find the facts specially and state separately its conclusions of law thereon, and Judgment shall be entered pursuant to Rule 58.

CR 76.36(7)(h) provides,

> Briefs in response to an appeal or cross-appeal shall be required. Such briefs shall be filed in accord with the provisions of CR 76.12(2)(a) and (b).
> Where an appeal is taken against a judge in the Court of Justice and concerns performance of an official act, the party appealing shall serve notice on the real party in interest as defined in this Rule, Section (8), who shall then be required to file a brief on behalf of the judge against whom the appeal or cross-appeal is taken; provided, however, no attorney shall be required or permitted to file a brief where to do so would conflict with the interest of his client.

CR 76.36(8) provides that,

> For purpose of this Rule only, the term "real party in interest" is any party in the Circuit Court action from which the original action arises who may be adversely affected by the relief sought pursuant to this Rule.

It is undisputed that the City of Covington is "real party in interest' in the three (3) cases involved here and were served as such. It is also clear that the City of Covington filed no brief on behalf of Judge Lape.

> The Rules covering briefs are designed to aid the Court in reaching a prompt and proper decision of the appeal . . . Hence as Appellant's statement was not contested, it will be accepted as correct. Copley v. Craft, 341 S.W. 2d 71 (KY 1960)

The Kentucky Supreme Court arbitrarily denied Petitioner's Oral Arguments on appeal because Petitioner is proceeding Pro Se.

In Detroit Demolition Corp. v. Burrough Corp., 392 Mich 769, 219 N.W. 2d 613, held that,

> The Court of Appeals denied Appellant an essential element of the right of appeal when it decided appeal without giving parties an opportunity to present oral argument directed to the finding of the trial court.
> A body of law has developed that embraces the Rule that Pro Se complaints are to be liberally construed. Haines v. Kerner, 404 U.S. 519, 520 (1971)

Turning to cases B, 17936, (App. P. 11a, 13a) we have an Order signed by Judge Lape. The Kenton County Clerk certified that the Order was entered. Judge Lape makes no effort to deny that it is not his signature on the Order or that he (Judge Lape) did not give the copy of the Order to Petitioner.

In Case C, 18227 A & B, Judge Lape makes no effort to deny that he told Petitioner that the file in 18227 A & B had been lost.

Neither does Judge Lape explain why he did not serve copies of exhibits attached to his Response to the Petition for Writ of Mandamus.

In affirming the Court of Appeals, the Kentucky Supreme Court in reference to case A, 87-CI-773 Thompson v. Covington Housing Development Corp., said: "The first case was a civil action brought by Thompson (Petitioner) against the City of Covington and others. Appellant (Petitioner) has argued that no final order was entered. The record reveals otherwise. Appellee (Judge Lape) entered an order on April 13, 1988, which dismissed Appellant's (Petitioner's) complaint for failure to state a cause of action. The order on its face was deemed final and appealable. Appellant filed a motion for rehearing which was orally overruled on May 2, 1988. A written order to that effect was entered on August 24, 1988." (App. P. 19a) (Who deemed what Order final and appealable?)

The material facts of this case are misquoted by the Kentucky Supreme Court. The Kentucky Court of Appeals did not find as a matter of fact or law that Judge Lape entered an Order that was deemed final and appealable.

Petitioner sought to collect a Federal Judgment (Ex. A & B, App. P. 6a, 7a) in State Court. Judge Lape refused to give full faith and credit to the judgment.

Put another way, does the order entered by Judge Lape on June 2, 1987, (App. P. 2a) April 13, 1988, May 2, 1988 or August 24, 1988 (App. P 19a) militate against the federal judgment. The answer is a resounding no. See Titus v. Wallick, 306 U.S. 282; Johnson v. Muelberger, 340 U.S. 581; Abbott v. Maranga, 567 S.W. 2d 312

Turning to the two (2) cases involving alleged criminal prosecution of Petitioner and his wife to aid and abet Peoples Liberty Bank and Richard Nelson in an illegal foreclosure, cases B, No. 17936 and case C, No. 18227 A & B, (App. P. 11a, 13a, 15a) the Kentucky Supreme Court saith, "These cases were brought in the old Covington Police Court back in 1977. Appellee (Judge Lape) then was not the judge of that court, and subsequently has never been the judge of record in either of these cases. Appellee (Judge Lape) was, however, the prosecuting attorney in both of these cases and therefore would not have been qualified to enter any Orders as Circuit Judge in later appeals, and is not now qualified to do so." (App. P. 17a)

Again the court has misquoted the facts. These cases were brought in the old Police Court back in 1977. But, Judge Lape was not the prosecutor in these two (2) cases. Judge Lape was prosecutor in 78-M-1186 Commonwealth v. Thompson, another case where Petitioner was allegedly criminally prosecuted to aid and abet Peoples Liberty Bank and Richard Nelson in an illegal foreclosure. Judge Lape was appointed Circuit Judge on or about May 18, 1979. Petitioner alleged under oath that Judge Lape told him (Petitioner) that he (Judge Lape) did not know where case # 18227 A & B was but Judge Lape had given Petitioner a copy of the order he (Judge Lape) had signed in case # 17936, (App. P. 11a) This order is certified by the Clerk of the Kenton Circuit Court. (App. P. 13a) This order, signed by Judge Lape, is entitled to full faith and credit in the Kentucky Court of Appeals as well as the Kentucky Supreme Court. Article IV, § 1, U.S. Constitution, 28 U.S.C. § 1738, Milliken v. Meyer, 311 U.S. 457.

> The right of a litigant to be heard is one of the fundamental rights of due process of law. A denial of the right requires a reversal. Hovey v. Elliot, 42 L ed 215
> Oral arguments . . . are encouraged by appellate courts in that they assist reviewing courts to fuller understanding of theories and issues on appeal. Edmonds v. Stratton, 457 S.W. 2d 228 (Mo. 1970)

The Kentucky Constitution § 1, provides, inter alia:

> All men are by nature, free and equal, and have certain inherent unalienable rights, among which may be reckoned:
> Fifth: The right of acquiring and protecting property.

Judge Lape's intentions in entering the Order on August 3, 1979 (App. P. 11a, 13a) placing Patricia Thompson on her own recognizance until further Order of the Court is questionable. Judge Lape's intentions in entering the Order on June 2, 1987 (Ex. B, App. P. 7a) overruling all pending motions of the parties is questionable. The only party with a motion before the Court was Petitioner's motion to compel the Kenton Circuit Court clerk to issue a Writ of Execution on a Federal Judgment. (Ex. A, App. P. 6a) "Justice must satisfy the appearance of justice." Re: Murchison, 349 U.S. 133, 75 S Ct 123, 99 L ed 942.

CONCLUSION

The facts of this case are not in dispute. Judge Lape nor the real party in interest, (CR 76.36(8)) filed a brief in the appeal in the Kentucky Supreme Court. Yet, the Kentucky Supreme Court reached two (2) inconsistent conclusions. In Case A, 87-CI-773, Judge Lape could enter an Order militating the judgment, but the record shows he (Judge Lape) did not. Where is the order?

In Case B and Case C, Judge Lape could not enter any orders. Yet, Petitioner presented a copy of an Order signed by Judge Lape, (App. P. 11a) placing Petitioner's wife on her own recognizance until further Orders of the court, dated August 3, 1979. No further Order has been signed.

Petitioner suggests that a denial of a hearing in the Kentucky Court of Appeals and denial of oral arguments in the Kentucky Supreme Court pursuant to Ky CR 76.16(4), simply because Petitioner is proceeding Pro Se is contra to the Kentucky Constitution § 1, 2, 14, 26 and the First and Fourteenth Amendments to the U.S. Constitution.

This court should grant Certiorari and reverse the Kentucky Supreme Court, with instruction to give full faith and credit to the federal judgment (Ex. A, App. P. 6a), and to its own State Court records and judicial proceedings (App. P. 11a, 13a, 15a) by granting the Writ of Mandamus and directing Judge Lape to enter appropriate orders in Case A, 87-CI-773, Case B, 17936 and Case C, 18227 A & B.

COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY
COURT OF APPEALS

FILE NO. _____

EDDIE THOMPSON, JR.

vs.

HON. RAYMOND E. LAPE
CIRCUIT JUDGE
RESPONDENT

PETITION FOR WRIT OF MANDAMUS

Petitioner, pursuant to the provisions of Kentucky Civil rule 76.36, respectfully pray that this Honorable Court issue a Writ of Mandamus to the Honorable Raymond E. Lape, Kenton Circuit Judge, to show cause, if there by any, why he refuses to issue a final and appealable ORDER AND JUDGMENT in following styled case;

(A) Eddie Thompson, Jr. V Covington Housing Development Corporation, 87-CI-773

(B) Commonwealth V Patricia Thompson, Circuit Court # 17936

(C) Commonwealth V Eddie Thompson, Jr., Circuit Court #18227 A & B as provided in KRS 454.350.

As grounds therefore, Petitioner, first being duly cautioned and sworn and states as follows;

(1) On May 7, 1987, petitioner filed a supplemental pleading styled Eddie Thompson, Jr. V Covington Housing Development Corporation (A).

(2) On May 15, 1987, Mr. Murtry, an Assistant City Solicitor filed a motion to dismiss on behalf of the City of Covington, Joseph Condit, and Ronald Turner, even through the City of Covington, Joseph Condit and Ronald Turner were not named as parties in the supplemental pleading.

(3) On May 21, 1987, responded to Mr. Murtry's motion to dismiss and filed a motion to compel the Court Clerk to issue a Writ of Execution.

(4) On June 1, 1987, Judge Lape Held a hearing where petitioner informed the Honorable Judge Lape that Mr. Murtry had no standing to be before the court to argue for a dismmiss by parties who were not named in the complaint or oppose the Court Clerk performing his duty.

(5) With the knowledge that Mr. McMurtry had no standing in the court at the time, Judge Lape told Mr. McMurtry to prepare an ORDER OVERRULING denying any relief.

(6) Mr. McMurtry Prepared an order dismissing all pending motions of the parties.

(7) Reconizing Mr. McMurtry's efforts were not in good faith, Judge Lape changed dismissed to overruled.

(8) When the Clerk listed the ORDER, it was list as Order over-ruling Defendant's motion to dismiss, when in fact the Defendant (Covington Housing Development Corp) had not filed any motion to dismiss.

(9) On November 30, 1987, Petitioner filed an amended Complaint naming in addition to the Covington Housing Development Corp, the City of Covington, Ronald Turner, the Mayor; and Joseph Condit, the City Solicitor.

(10) On November 30, 1987, Petitioner also propounded interrogatories to defendants.

(11) On December 18, 1987, Mr. McMurtry filed a Motion to Dismis and a Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings.

(12) On December 29, 1987, Petitioner move the court to compel Defendant to answer interrogatories, which still have not been ruled on.

(13) On December 30, 1987, Petitioner filed a reply to defendants' motion to dismiss and judgment on the pleading.

(14) On March 10, 1988, Judge lape held a hearing where it was undisputed the judgment against the Housing development Corporation was valid, the City of Covington was liable, and that City Official had wrongful used their Offices in an attempt to prevent petitioner from collecting the Judgment.

(15) On April 13, 1988, the court entered an order signed by Judge Lape dismissing petitioner claim with prejudice.

(16) Since Judge Lape obviously misunderstood the nature of the instant proceeding, Petitioner filed a timely Motion for rehearing.

(17) At a hearing on May 2, 1988 Petitioner informed the court on the record before the court it was a reversible error to dismiss this case, the defendants had not answerred the complaint or interrogatories as required by KRS 426.381, 426.382.

(18) Petitioner inform the Honorable Judge Lape that Mr. McMurtry's claims were to promote racial discrimination in city policies.

(19) Petitioner also inform the Honorable Judge Lape when Defendant move to dismiss and for judgment on the pleadings required the court, in the absence of legal reason not to, to rule on petitioner's pleading and not to so was reversible.

(20) Petitioner requested the court to enter finding of facts and to cite a case the court was relying upon to suppott its' decision.

(21) Judge Lape has wilfully refuse to enter an order ruling on the Motion for rehearing.

(22) This is not the first case Petitioner has been involved in where Judge Lape refuse to enter a final appealable order.

(23) In Circuit Court Case # 17936 and # 18227 A & B Commonwealth V Thompson Judge Lape refused to entered a final appealable ORDER

(24) Prior to Judge Lape getting these cases, City Officials had been able to secure continuances. (City officials had secured convictions in police court without any evidences)

(25) After being made aware of the facts Judge Lape decided not to ruled on these cases. (Defendants were entitled to a new trial in Circuit court.)

(26) This Denied Defendants the opportunity to show that the City had brought the charge in bad faith.

(27) Judge Lape's refusal to enter a final and appealable orders in these cases are a violation of KRS 454.350.

Wherefore, Petitioner pray;

(1) The Court ORDER the Honorable Judge Lape to enter a final appealable Order pursuant to KRS 454.350, with due regards for Civil Rules 52 and 58

(2) For his Cost herein expended.

(3) For all other good and proper relief he may be entitled to.

Can a Circuit Judge continuously refuse to enter final judgment as required by KRS 454.350?

Under statute setting forth time within which Judge, Commissioner or hearing officer must issue judgment or report certification of reason delay occurs, to aviod prolonged indecision, madatory Writ should be used to rectify situation and if this be to no avail, then extreme remedy of removal is provided. MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE REPLY TO RESPONSE TO PETITION FOR WRIT OF MANDAMUS

Comes now Eddie Thompson, Jr. Petitioner herein, and move the court for leave to file a reply to the Honorable Judge Raymond E. Lape's response to Petition for Writ of Mandamus. The misstatements in Judge Lape's response to Petition for Writ of Mandamus make it imperative that Petitioner file a Reply.

AFFIDAVIT

Comes now, Eddie Thompson, Jr., affiant herein, first being duly cautioned and sworn and states as follows;

(1) Exhibits A, B, C was not attached to the copy of the Response to Petition for Writ of Mandamus Judge Lape served on me.

(2) For the pass seven (7) or eight (8) years, the Clerk's Office has been telling me that these files had been lost. Kenton Circuit # 17936 & # 18227 A & B

(3) After requesting and receiving the Exhibits from the Court of Appeals, I Requested the Kenton Circuit Court to Certify that the records in Criminal cases # 17936 and # 18227 A & B were lost.

(4) On September 1, 1988, I was shown the files in cases # 17936 and # 18227 A & B.

(5) In 1980, I had visited the Kenton Circuit Clerk's Office seeking the files in Case Nos. 17936 and 18227 A & B for my federal court trial

(6) The Clerk's office told me that no one knew where case file # 18227 A & B was but Judge Lape had case # 17936. See Exhibits 2 & 3

(7) I visited Judge Lape's chambers

(8) Judge Lape said he did Not know where Case file # 18227 A & B was.

(9) In 17936, Judge Lape gave me a copy of an order, Exhibit 1) and the Hundred Dollars that I had deposited as a Cash Bond for Patricia Thompson.

(10) The Records of the Kenton Circuit Court Clerk Show that the Order, Exhibit 1, had been entered by the Clerk's Office on August 3, 1979. (See Exhibit 2)

(11) When I checked case file # 17936 on September 1, 1988, The Order signed by Judge Lape (Exhibit 1) was not in the file. See Exhibit 2

(12) Judge Lape's Statement that, ". . . this matter was not brought to my attention since my appointment as circuit Judge on May 18, 1979, until I received the Petition for Writ of Mandamus filed on August 19, 1988 by Petitioner, Eddie Thompson, Jr.," is totally untrue.

(13) Any Claims by Judge Lape that I have not ask Judge Lape to rule on these cases are false.

(14) When I was preparing for a pretrial conference, on September 10, 1980, I related to Judge Lape that I needed the files in Kenton Circuit Court cases # 17936 and # 18227 A & B to show that Official of the City of Covington had prosecuted me and my wife to assist the bank in an illegal foreclosurer.

(15) When Prosecutors did not show for the trial (18227 A & B) set for April 5, 1978, it was clear to me that city officials were admitting that the charges in the cases were false and should have been DISMISSED. See Ex. 3

(16) On April 20, 1978, I filed a motion to dismiss.

(17) On or about April 15, 1978, three (3) Covington police Officers (Finan, Epperson, and Tucker) beat me and threatened to put me in the river. 78-M-1186

(18) On or about April 15, 1978, I was charged with assault on a police officer, resisting arrest, disorderly conduct, and DUI. 78-M-1186

(19) Officer Epperson, who had attempted to strike me in the head with his slab stick, claimed I had kicked him in the groin when in fact a fellow officer, in an attempted assault on me, had struck Officer Epperson with his night stick.

(20) At the time that the Commonwealth prosecuted me on these false charges, Judge Lape was an assistant county attroney, who prosecuted the case.

(21) With the knowledge that there was no evidence to support any of the charge against me, Prosecutor Lape conspired to convict me.

APPELLANT

RAYMOND E. LAPE, JUDGE
KENTON CIRCUIT COURT

APPELLEE

MEMORANDUM OPINION OF THE COURT AFFIRMING

Eddie Thompson, Jr., brings this appeal from an original action filed in the Court of Appeals where he sought a writ of mandamus to compel the appellee, Raymond E. Lape, Judge of the Kenton Circuit Court, to enter final orders in three cases. The Court of Appeals denied appellant's petition, and we affirm the Court of Appeals.

The first case was a civil action brought by Thompson against the City of Covington and others. Appellant has argued that no final order was entered. The record reveals otherwise. Appellee entered an order on April 13, 1988, which dismissed appellant's complaint for failure to state a cause of action. The order on its face was deemed final and appealable. Appellant filed a motion for rehearing which was orally overruled on May 2, 1988. A written order to that effect was entered on August 24, 1988.

The other two cases were prosecutions against the appellant and one Patricia Thompson for violations of Covington's housing code. These cases were brought in the old Covington Police Court back in 1977. Appellee then was not the judge of that court, and subsequently has never been the judge of record in either of these cases. Appellee was, however, the prosecuting attorney in both of these cases and therefore would not have been qualified to enter any orders as circuit judge in later appeals, and is not now qualified to do so. KRS 26A.015(2)(b).

The order of the Court of Appeals denying appellant's petition for writ of mandamus is hereby affirmed.

All sitting. All concur.

ORDER

(Entered August 24, 1988)

This matter is before the Court on the Motion of the Plaintiff for Rehearing filed April 19, 1988, to be held on May 2, 1988, at the hour of 9:30 A.M.

The Defendants filed a Response to the Motion for Rehearing on April 21, 1988 and the Plaintiff filed a Reply to the Response on April 23, 1988.

This matter was heard at the regularly convened Motion Docket of this division and the Motion of the Plaintiff was overruled.

The Court, by Order of April 13, 1988, dismissed this matter with prejudice, determining that said Order was a final, appealable order, there being no just cause for delay.

This Order is being prepared to bring the file current with all pending matters.

So ORDERED this 24th day of August, 1988.
